

Fellow Shorthorn Breeder:

While agriculture continues to face many challenges precipitated by the pandemic, great opportunities remain within the beef industry. One thing we can all agree on is the need for high-quality, adaptable cattle positioned to meet the increased demand for quality and sustainable beef. The Ohio Shorthorn Breeders' Association is pleased to invite you to participate in this year's Ohio Shorthorn Fall Showcase Sale on Sunday, Oct. 23, 2022 at Paint Valley Farms located in Millersburg, Ohio.

The Fall Showcase serves as a venue where breed enthusiasts can gather to evaluate and take advantage of high-quality Shorthorn genetics made available by breeders in and around Ohio. The Fall Showcase Sale Committee remains committed to providing all consignors with equal opportunity through creative marketing to ensure this year's offering is highly regarded by all who participate as a bidder, buyer or consignor. As such, we are currently seeking consignments of high-quality Shorthorn / Shorthorn Plus females (open & bred), Shorthorn / Shorthorn Plus Cow / Calf pairs, Shorthorn and Shorthorn Plus steers and genetic lots.

The historical customer base for the sale is broad and includes those interested in a wide variety of Shorthorn individuals and genetics. Make plans to provide optimal exposure to your breeding program by planning ahead, remaining mindful of quality and providing appealing photographs and videos (cell phone pictures and videos subject to committee evaluation) along with accurate and thoughtful footnotes for each of your consignments.

As a reminder, all cattle must have an official health certificate issued within 30 days of the sale and must include a 15-digit EID number for each consignment. EID tags can be ordered through an animal health supplier by providing your farm's premise ID number.

Premise ID numbers can be obtained by filling out an application:
www.agri.ohio.gov/divs/animalid/animalid.asp or through your local veterinarian.

Please select your best consignments and join us in promoting our great breed.

See you at the sale!
